

Jennifer Goff

I am a retired Primary School teacher, I moved from Newcastle to Humshaugh with my husband to spend our retirement in the beautiful Northumberland countryside. I am a keen walker and enjoy Yoga and Pilates. I trained as a teacher in Liverpool and lived and worked there for 8 years before returning to my roots in the North East. My career took me to several schools in Newcastle with the last decade spent very happily at St Cuthbert's Primary school, Walbottle. I have 2 grown up sons who are now married and both living near Manchester.
