ARTIST-PRINTING

As a follow up to our session with the Illustrator a few weeks ago, the children in Years 2,3 and 4 worked with Printer, Cath Homer. A few of the children's illustrations from Room on the Broom and The Tiger who came to Tea were selected to be printed onto cushion covers. Our Friends from the Village also joined us and a small group of them have volunteered to have a sewing session to complete the cushions.

PUPIL VOICE

Well done to Hayden, Katie, Aimee-Leigh and Lloyd who took part in the Hexham Partnership Pupil Voice conference today at Queen Elizabeth High School. The theme this year was 'Global Goals' and the children too part in different activities including a drama workshop which ended with a performance in the afternoon. Thank you to Mrs Parker who accompanied them for the day.

ROUNDERS

The Year 4 children enjoyed a rounders afternoon at their new middle schools on Wednesday. Thank you to Mrs Phillips, Mrs Parker and Amy McKenzie for transporting the children to and from Hexham. The children were an absolute credit to us-well done! Apologies, photographs of St. Joseph's were not permitted.

SCHOOL WEBSITE AWARDS

I was delighted to receive a phone call from our website provider (eschools) today. We have been awarded the awards above for having such an informative and well maintained website. If you click on each of the icons on the website, you can find out more information about how we fulfil the criteria.

HUMSHAUGH VILLAGE HALL PERFORMANCE

The Lawnmowers Theatre Ensemble presents their performance 'MIST' on Tuesday 16th July at 7pm. 'Mist' looks at Personal Independent Payments (PIP) and the government's programme of reassessment. It explores the human cost behind the repeated, often confusing, process through the eyes of Frankie, a young woman with learning disabilities. Tickets are available at Humshaugh Village Shop.

SPORTS DAY

A letter was sent out on Wednesday about our Sports Day and Friends fun afternoon which will take place on Wednesday 3rd July (weather permitting).

HOMEWORK

As the end of term is nearly upon us, the teachers and I have decided not to send any more homework out! However, we would really appreciate all children continuing to practise their dialogue, songs and actions for Shakespeare Rocks! Also, please ensure ALL school reading books are returned to school by Friday 12th July.
